Thursday
December 2

Event starts promptly at 4pm; if you are late, you may not be allowed in.

Besides the new friends and amazing knowledge available at these events, The New Niche Bond will draw the biggest crowd. Each comes with two dividends or coupons.

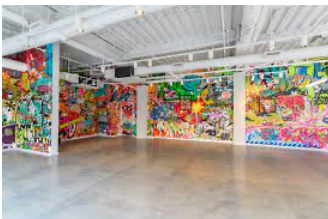

Five participating schools and organizations can receive The New Niche Bond without coming to our events. The 5 are: String Theory, Olney, Camden Prep, PAAN, and Philly Connect.

If you are enrolled at one of these 5 places, you will earn extra money if you attend either or both events, but attending those two events will not affect your ability to earn your first New Niche Bond before winter break.

As mentioned in last week's issue, there are 3 main ways to earn the Bond.

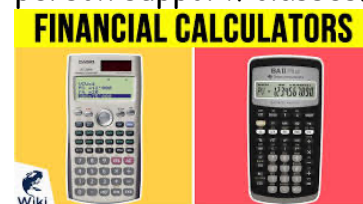

Option #1: In-person Laws of Money Internships available at 514 South Street and our affiliated satellite locations.

Option #2: Virtual Laws of Money, which includes the legendary Bishop Rider.

Option #3: The Financial Calculator Video Series, which comes with both virtual and in-person support/classes.

If you are not part of the 5 aforementioned schools or programs, you must attend Re-Opening Ceremonies to receive a contract for a New Niche Bond. If you are a member of one of these 5 places, then look at the list below for how the New Niche Bond will become available to you:

Camden Prep	Pay day is this Thursday! You will get the second dividend this week.
Olney High	Pay day is December 22. You just must average a 70% or higher on the 4 Ps of Professionalism. Ms. Wallace and Mr. LaSalle will have 2 weeks of scores available to you by our next meeting on Tuesday, December 5, at 10:15am.
PAAN	The New Niche Bond will be given out this Tuesday and Wednesday.
Philly Connect	The New Niche Bond was given out last Tuesday (November 21) and the first dividend was paid out. New members can get The New Niche Bond but not the missed dividend.
String Theory	Contracts and maybe even The Niche Bond itself will be dropped off to your first period teacher sometime this week.
