Issue 24

This issue of the Sunday Niche Newsletter will review, remind, and reinforce some important details about Winter Niche Jobs so the focused student-worker can achieve maximal pay.

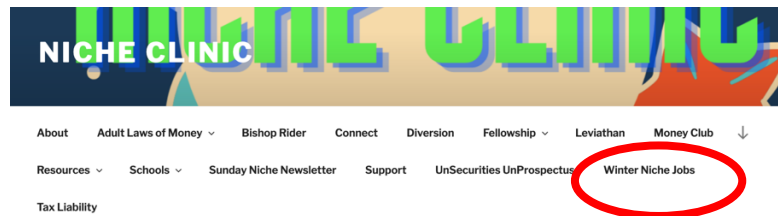

First, make sure you watch the Introduction to UnSecurities video on YouTube. This is the best way to figure out how to get maximum payment.

Our Self-Paced Financial Calculator Series is available under the "Winter Niche Jobs" tab of our website. If you have questions, just reach out to a Niche Clinic staff member.

THE NICHE CLINIC 4 Ps of Professionalism
Presence Is the intern working 100% of the time they should be? _____ (1-4)	Punctuality Is the intern on time? _____ (1-4)
Performance Please rate the intern's quality of the work they do for you. _____ (1-4)	Power How much does the intern go above and beyond, arguably replacing the need for additional interns? A score of 1 means the intern does not go above-and-beyond at all, which is normal for most workers, while a 4 means the intern does the work of 4 interns. _____ (1-4)

Every day you show up, you will be scored on the 4 Ps of Professionalism - presence, punctuality, performance, and power. (Please read issue #22 of our newsletter if you do not know what those concepts refer to.) Whatever your average score for the day, that will equal the number of Red Niche Coins you receive.

Be sure to follow @thel.eviathan to take advantage of market asymmetries for opportunities for increased pay and paying off your tax liability early.

Lastly, start to check the “tax liability” tab to see how much of your tax liability has been paid – look for your nickname!

If we all function as a hardworking and money-hungry team of workers, we hope next week all readers will be ready for the winter UnSecurities UnProspectus.
